Instructor: Dan Mathews, Head Coach, Cardinal Stritch Volleyball

A native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and a graduate of Ohio State University, Mathews was a three-time, first-team Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association All-Conference selection and was named the MIVP Player of the Year in both 2007 and 2008. He played on two conference championship teams (2007, 2008), two conference tournament championship teams (2005, 2008) and two NCAA semifinalist teams (2005, 2008).

Off the court, Mathews was a four-time Scholar-Athlete and a three-time Academic All-Big 10 selection. He was named the recipient of the Big Ten Medal of Honor, which is awarded annually to one graduating male and female student-athlete of each Big Ten member institution for outstanding achievement in athletics and academics.

Prior to joining the Stritch coaching staff, Mathews was the head volleyball coach at Clarke University in Dubuque, Iowa, where he guided the Crusaders to a program best 24-7 enroute to a NAIA National Invitational Tournament Semifinal finish. He also spent a season at the University of Portland, an NCAA DI program, as the assistant coach

Mathews played professional volleyball after wrapping up his collegiate career. He was a member of the Chênois Volleyball Club, of Geneva, Switzerland, during the 2011-12 and 2012-13 season. Mathews was a member of the USA Men's National Team during the winter training period and the Al-Ain Sport and Cultural Club Volleyball Team (United Arab Emirates) in 2008-09. He played for Voley Guada, of Guadalajara, Spain, in 2009-10 and Voley Amriswil, of Amriswil, Switzerland, in 2010-11.

Mathews has been actively involved in numerous camps and clinics since 2005, including programs with the University of Wisconsin, Ohio State University, Marquette University, Gold Medal Squared and the US Elite Volleyball.
